SINGLE COPY, FIVE CENTS. NO. 26.

ESTABLISHED 1855.

YORKVILLE, S. C., TUESDAY, MARCH 30, 1915.

WITH ILLUSTRATIONS FROM PHOTOGRAPHS SCENES IN THE PLAY All journeys end, and as Samson

CHAPTER XIV. Samson stopped at his studio and threw open an old closet where, from local train near Hixon he saw several a littered pile of discarded background faces which he recognized, but they draperies, canvases and stretchers, he either eyed him in inexpressive silence fished out a buried and dust-covered or gave him the greeting of the "furpair of saddlebags. They had long riner." Misery. He threw them over his arm only a short distance rose the cupola and dropped them at Adrienne's feet, of the brick courthouse and the scatas he handed her the studio keys. | tered roofs of the town. Scattered "Will you please have George look over the green slopes by the river

The girl nodded.

in a cutaway coat."

the machine, took her hand. "It's not good-by, you know," he of painted tin would be equally effect-said, smiling. "Just auf Wiedershen." ive. These military forces must rethe car slowly. There was no need to obeyed the nod of Judge Hollman and days when the pioneers' worldly con-

Samson had caught the fastest westbound express on the schedule. In to the town proper he passed two pers, tobacco and herbs strung high thirty-six hours he would be at Hixon. brown-shirted militiamen, lounging on There were many things which his the rail of the middle span. They brain must attack and digest in these grinned at him, and recognizing the action to its minutest detail, because commented. he would have as little time for reflection, once he had reached his own country, as a wildcat flung into a pack

"Ain't this the hell of a town?"

"It's going to be," replied Samse

Still unrecognized, he hired a hors

"Jesse Purvy, General Merchandise."

The porch of the store was empty,

The yard and orchard were quiet from their front fence to the grissly stock-

a moment looking about at the afternoon place before he announced him-

Jesse Purvy's store and chat artlessly, ual information, which he should as sume to have heard on the train, that Samson South was returning, and to of the news. In his new code it was well-he shrugged his shoulders.

But as he stood on the outside, wiping the perspiration from his forehead, by remaining where he was he might gain more information than by hur-mountings would 'a'took such a long

"Aaron, you can't scare me into doin'

"Thar hain't nothin' to talk over."

Samson stood rigid. Here was the rving in.

enigmatically, as he went on.

wise unchanged

of hounds. From the railroad station to his at the livery stable, and for two hours home he must make his way-most rode in silence, save for the easy probably fight his way-through thirty creaking of his stirrup leathers and miles of hostile territory, where all the soft thud of hoofs. the trails were watched. And yet, for The silence soothed him. The broodthe time, all that seemed too remotely ing hills lulled his spirit as a crooning unreal to hold his thoughts. He was song lulls a fretful child. Mile after seeing the cooly waving curtains of mile unrolled forgotten vistas. Someflowered chintz that stirred in the win- thing deep in himself murmured: dows of his room at the Lescott nodded against the sky. He was hearing a knock on the door, and seeing, as it opened, the figure of Adrienne Legett and the look that had been in Lescott and the look that had been

-her eyes. He took out Sally's letter, and read it once more. He read it mechanically and as a piece of news that had saddle there was no one to greet him. brought evil tidings. Then, suddenly, This was surprising, since, ordinarily, another aspect of it struck him-an two or three of Purvy's personal aspect to which the shock of its recep- guardsmen loafed at the front to watch tion had until this tardy moment the road. Just now the guard should blinded him. The letter was perfect logically be doubled. Samson still es of sardines and cans of peaches grammatically and penned in a hand of wore his eastern clothes—for he wantcopybook roundness and evenness. ed to go through that door unknown. The address, the body of the missive As Samson South he could not cross and the signature were all in one chirography. She would not have intrust- he stepped up on to the rough porch ed the writing of this letter to anyone flooring no one challenged his advance.

Sally had learned to write. Moreover, at the end were the ade at the rear, and, wondering at words, "with love." It was all plain these things, the young man stood for now, Sally had never repudiated him. She was declaring herself true to her mission and her love. All that heartbreak through which he had gone had been due to his own misconception, stronghold of his enemy for the purand in that misconception he had drawn into himself and had stopped another object in his mind-an utterly writing to her. Even his occasional mad idea, it is true, yet so bold of letters had for two years ceased to brighten her heart-strangling isolation-and she was still waiting. . She had sent no word of appeal until like some inquisitive "furriner." He the moment had come of which she would ask questions which by their had promised to inform him. Sally, abandoned and alone, had been fighting her way up-that she might stand on his level.

"Good God!" groaned the man, abject bitter self-contempt. His hand went involuntarily to his cropped head, mark, on the assassin leader, the effect and dropped with a gesture of selfdoubting. He looked down at his tan necessary to give at least the rattler's nouncement that the British had takshoes and silk socks. He rolled back warning before he struck, and he his shirtsleeves and contemplated the meant to strike. If he were recognized, must have lost in all 18,000 men. says forearm that had once been as brown and tough as leather. It was now the arm of a city man, except for the burning of one outdoor week. He was for the ride had been warm, he heard returning at the eleventh hourstripped of his faith in kinsmen, half-stripped of his faith in himself. If he were to realize the constructive dreams of which he had last night so confidently prattled to Adrienne, he must lead his people from under the blighting shadows of the feud.

he must first regain their shaken con- of Purvy's personal guards. "I hain't invaders are driven from France and ers will have 25 per cent taxed on fidence, and to do that he must go, at never laid down on ye yet. Me an' Jim Belgium. their head, through this mire of war Asberry killed old Henry South. We to vindication. Only a fighting South laid fer his boy an' would 'a' got him could hope to be heard in behalf of ef you'd only said ther word. I went peace. His eventual regeneration be- inter Hixon an' killed Tam'rack Spicer, than Manchester is, and some daily longed to some tomorrow. Today held with soldiers all round me. There the need of such work as that of the hain't no other damn fool in these chance es thet. I'm tired of it. men as much as possible the boy who They're a-goin' ter git me, an' I wants spring campaign, in all its grimness, had left them-not the fop with new- ter leave, an' you won't come clean fangled affections. His eyes fell with the price of a railroad ticket to upon the saddlebags upon the floor of Oklahoma. Now, damn your stingy the Pullman and he smiled satirically. soul, I gits that ticket or I gits you!" He would like to step from the train at Hixon and walk brazenly through nothin' I ain't aimin' to do." The old the town in those old clothes, chal-lenging every hostile glance. If they stocial voice. "I tell ye I ain't quite wounded men, who are expected when shot him down on the streets, as they through with ye yet. In due an' proper certainly would do, it would end his time I'll see that ye get yer ticket." questioning and his anguish of dilem- Then he added, wih a conciliating softma. He would welcome that, but it ness: "We've been friends a long would, after all, be shirking the issue, while. Let's talk this thing over be-He must get out of Hixon and into fore we fall out." his own country unrecognized. The clan boy of four years ago was the stormed Aron. "Ye're jest tryin' ter somewhat filled-out man now. The one kill time till the boys gits hyar, and concession that he had made to Paris then I reckon ye lows ter have me kilt life was the wearing of a closely like yer've had me kill them others. cropped mustache. That he still wore Hit ain't no use. I've done sent 'em -had worn it chiefly because he liked away. When they gits back hyar, to hear Adrienne's humorous denuncia- either you'll be in hell or I'll be on my tion of it. He knew that, in his pres- way outen the mountings." ent guise and dress, he had an excellent chance of walking through the confession of one murderer, with no streets of Hixon as a stranger. And, denial from the other. The truce was after leaving Hixon; there was a mis- off. Why should he wait? Cataracts sion to be performed at Jesse Purvy's seemed to thunder in his brain, and store. As he thought of the mission yet he stood there, his hand in his

a grim glint came to his pupils.

writhing in the life-and-death grapple of two codes. Then, before decision came, he heard a sharp report inside, and the heavy fall of a body to A wildly excited figure came plungng through the door, and Samson's left hand swept out and seized its houlder in a sudden vise grip. "Do you know me?" he inquired, as the mountaineer pulled away and magazine pistol. Samson South the old, and Samson South the new were crouched back with startled surprise and vicious frenzy. "No, damn ye! Git outen my road! Aaron thrust his cocked rifle close against the stranger's face. From its passed through the tawdry cars of the muzzle came the acrid stench of freshly burned powder. "Git outen my road afore I kills ye!"

"My name is Samson South." Before the astounded finger on the lain there forgotten, but they held the rusty clothes in which he had left trestle over the Middle fork, and at the late over the Middle fork the late o too late and a shade too high, over his head, as the dead man's arms went up. Except for those two reports there after my things, and make the neces- bank lay the white spread of a tented was no sound. Samson stood still, ansary excuses to my sitters? He'll find company street, and, as he looked out, ticipating an uproar of alarm. Now sary excuses to my sitters; Hell line company street, and, as he nowed out, he should doubtless have to pay with sion all day yesterday and far into he saw uniformed figures moving to his life for both the deaths, which the night. About 150 of our men call. So the militia was on deck; would inevitably and logically be at-The girl nodded.

"What are those?" she asked, gazthings must be bad, he reflected. He tributed to his agency. But, strangely Wagner and Gregg. The attempt to ing at the great leather pockets as at stood on the platform and looked enough, no clamor arose. The shot insome relic unearthed from Pompelian down as the engine roared along the side had been muffled, and those outdown as the engine roared along the side, broken by the intervening store, landing. Great havoc is supposed to restle. There were two gatting guils. did not arouse the house. Purvy's have been played in the enemy's boats in them are homespun jeans. One town, and the other scowled up at the bodyguard had been sent away by Holcan't lead his 'fluttered folk and wild' face of the mountain. Sentries paced lis on a false alarm. Only the "women their beats. Men in undershirts lay folks" and children remained indoors, shortly they were at the station, dozing outside tent flaps. It was all and they were drowning with a piano moat of Wagner, and it being imposand the man, standing at the side of a picture of disciplined readiness, and any sounds that might have come from yet Samson knew that soldiers made without. The plano was the chief Beauregard ordered its evacuation, emblem of Purvy's wealth. It represented the acme of "having things and 1 o'clock p. m., with success. We she smiled she shivered, and turned ties, and the local civil authorities phrase, which had come down from As Samson crossed the toll bridge ing in the smoakhouse and the pep

Now Samson South stood looking down, uninterrupted, on what had hours. He must arrange his plan of outsider from his clothes, one of them been Aaron Hollis as it lay motionless burned hole in the butternut shirt, and only a slender thread of blood trickled into the dirt-grimed cracks between the planks. The body was twisted sidewise, in one of those grotesque attitudes with which a sudden summons so frequently robs the greatest phenomenon of all its rightful dignity The sun was gilding the roadside clods and burnishing the greens of the treetops. The breeze was harping sleepily among the branches, and several geese stalked pompously along the creek's edge. On the top of the stockade a gray squirrel, sole witness > way. Inside was emptiness, except for the other body, which had crumpl and as Samson flung himself from his ed forward and face down across the Purvy would no more fight back the coming of death. He was quite unarmed. Behind his spent body ranged shelves of general merchandise. Box-His lifeless hand rested as though flung out in an oratorical gesture on a bolt of blue calico. Samson paused only for a momen the dilemma of old ethics and new. Tomorrow the word would spread like wild fire along Misery and Crippleshin now holds Comming's Point in full that Samson South was back and that his coming had been signalized by these two deaths. The fact that he were responsible for only one-and that

Yet Samson had not come to the pose of assassination. There had been and that Hollis had fallen in his master's defense at the threshold. Samconception that it held a ghost of promise. He had meant to go into

continued his journey. (To be Continued).

very impertinence might be forgiven NEUVE CHAPPELLE LOSSES Already 300 Officers' Names on the most of all, he wanted to drop the cas-

> The British public is not deceived by the lact of definite reports as to the British losses in the recent fighting at Neuve Chappelle. Official anen 1,800 prisoners, that the Germans the fire is still going on. an Associated Press dispatch of Saturday, prepared the public for the heavy loss on the Britih side. Rumors the neighborhood of 13,000.

voices within. They were loud and angry voices. It occurred to him that Already there are about 300 officers names on the casualty lists as the result of the battle, which are being added to daily. Since it takes so many "I've done been your executioner for men to win a mile of French soil from twenty years," complained a voice, the Germans, more than the losses at will close the returns on "the tax in bition has been issued in Germans which Samson at once recognized as Waterloo, the British public is aware value," at Yorkville, on the 7th of against the baking of cakes in baker-Yet, if he was to lead them at all, that of Aaron Hollis, the most trusted the cost will be stupendous before the October, next, after which the default-> point out that the Germans, being at papers are preaching conscription. There is an urgent call for more nurses and hospital facilities. In short, London feels that the anticipated > has begun. School buildings, work houses, asy lums and buildings of all kinds are be cities to provide hospital accomodations. About fifty work houses and asythe promised "big move" comes. Redreds of replies, but many were from > war office activity, "that we must abandon the idea of nursing soldiers only with full trained nurses, at least require only trained nurses as long as possible."

> The war office has also forty hours.

d# Canada's total debt js $483,232,555. AT Greece is a heavy lumber export-

More than ninety per cent of the alcohol and alcoholic drinks that are made in the Philappines are derived coat pocket, clutching the grip of a from the sap of palm trees.

As Traced In Early Files of The Yorkville Enquirer. NEWS AND VIEWS OF YESTERDAY

Bringing Up Records of the Past and Giving the Younger Readers of Today a Pretty Comprehensive Knowlcerned Generations that Have Gone

The first installment of the notes appearing under this heading was pub-lished in our issue of November 14 the editor as time and opportunity permit. Their purpose is to bring into review the events of the past for the pleasure and satisfaction of the older

120TH INETALLMENT.

(Wednesday Evening, Sept. 9, 1863.) Evacuation of Morris' Island.

Charleston, Sept. 7.-The bombard ment was kept up without intermiswere killed and wounded at batteries assault battery Gregg was repulsed before the enemy had completed their by our grape and cannister. At dark yesterday afternoon, the enemy having advanced their sap up to the very sible to hold the island longer, Gen. which was executed between 8 p. m.,

FOOTSTEPS OF THE FATHERS every accommodation is cheerfuly afforded them—the enterprise is the theme of praise on their part and deserves the public encouragement both with money and provisions. A home ndeed. Of it the Courier says: "We invite the attention of all officers visiting the city on honorable leave to the Wayside Home, in the American hotel building, corner of King and George Street. "They should acquaint themselves with the claims of this place that they edge of the Things that Most Con- may intelligently commend it to the Stragglers, loiters, deserters or imposters are not wanted at the Wayside Home, but all soldiers passing through the city will be received there with 1913. The notes are being prepared by entertainment, and lodging if needed. (To be continued.)

GENERAL NEWS NOTES.

Items of Interest Gathered From All Around the World.

After December 31, 1915, prison contract labor will be abolished in the state of Missouri. A strike of 100,000 workers of thirty-four trades is threatened in Chicago, to begin May 1st. The Dutchess of Brunswick, daugh ter of Emperor William of Germany, on Thursday, gave birth to a son. Cerebro-spinal fever, popularly known as spotted fever, is epidemic in certain of the camps of recruits in England. Charles Kimbrough, a negro, ha murdering an 8-year-old girl, and sensenced to life imprisonment. The Dutch steamer Medea, loaded been convicted at Saginaw, Mich., of Photographic Evidence of Modern Progress In York County.

This photograph of a handsome York county school building, is one of number that The Enquirer has had engraved to show the wonderful improvement that is being made along that line in York county.

FRIENDSHIP SCHOOL

This building is located in school district No. 45, and is nine miles southeast of Rock Hill, near the Indian reservation. It was completed in 1911, and is valued at $1,200. The teachers are Misses Josephine Byrom and Ruth Thomas, and the trustees are J. J. Hoke, R. J. Cornwell and F. W. Gryder. The district is noted for its progressiveness and wholesome community spirit, evidenced by a 4-mill levy and eight months term and a good School Improvement association. Friendship is in the Rural Graded class with state aid amounting to $200 a year. The total enrollment at the present time is 51.

would not again have to agonize over and withdrew noiselessly in forty the German submarine U-28, The crev barges, only one barge containing was rescued by a British destroyer. twelve men, was captured. The enemy > view of the city. All quiet this morning.

Charleston, Sept 7. 12 m.-A disin self-defense-would not matter, patch from Maj. Stephen Elliott, com-They would prefer to believe that he manding Fort Sumter, announces that had invaded the store and killed Purvy a flag of truce demanding the immediate surrender of that fort has just been received from Admiral son went out, still meeting no one, and Dahlgren by Lieut. Brown of the Palmetto State. Beaurgeard telegraphed Elliott to reply to Dahlgren that he can have Fort Sumter when he takes it and holds it, and that in the meantime such demands are puerile and unbecoming.

> Charleston, Sept. 7, 8 p. m.-At 6 p. m., the Ironsides and Monitors approached Fort Sumter closer than usual and opened fire against it. Our batteries on Sullivan's island, includ-

(Wednesday Evening, Sept. 23, 1863.) Our Advertisements.

We often call attention to these mat ters, but now we do so particularly, govern themselves accordingly." For instance: The assessor gives notice all hands. that he has filled his appointments throughout the district and that he

The issue of Confederate notes of 1861 and '62 by some considered of Ostend, already are nearer London little value are receivable by the tax collector, and so a favorable opportunity is afforded to fund them; and you had better do it.

After this, if you have anything to eat and want the material to spread it on, you will have an opportunity on sales day next, to buy crockery ware at your own prices, for the public will then be offered a chance to place their own value on a stock that will be of-

Now, if you have 25 per cent tacked on your tax account-if you have any bad money past redemption, and no crockery to smash up when your The first name on his petition is that wives make you mad, or been paying women without training.

"It is clear, however," says Viscount Knutsford, in charge of this branch of Knutsford, in charge of this we must be said to be s of interest to report from Charleston, taken from the French and American call for more doctors. Arrangements for the transport of wounded from the fortifications as opportunity offers, our erected in the mission yards. been so perfected that many wounded men are in their beds here within time. One of our shots dismounted time. One of our shots dismounted and being escorted to the police sta-

and we learn in good health and spiris daily visited by our soldiers where crime. He was a "dope" fiend.

An epidemic of smallpox has broken out in Philadelphia and its suburbs There are forty-two victims at Millville, a manufacturing suburb.

was shot in France, Thursday, follow in a trial by court matrial. The wo man confessed that she was paid $40 by the Germans to get information. The New York conference of the passed resolutions inviting Rev. Billy Sunday to conduct a revival campaign in that city. Caesar Ancinas, a Filipino, was in New York last week in charge of a detective, on his way from Genoa, Italy, pleting a full course to Manila, where he is wanted for forgery and embezzlement to the amount of $150,000.

Richard S. Darling, on trial last week at White Plains, N. Y., on the charge of "stealing" Mrs. Katherine Shaw, from her husband, Robert M. Shaw, a New York banker, was ac-

The British admiralty has issued statement in which it expresses a belief that the German submarine U-29, Capt. Weddigen, which recently requiring all "to take due notice and torpedoed nine ships in 24 hours, has been sunk in the English channel with

A dispatch by way of Copenhagen is to the effect that a general prohiies, hotels or private homes. A punishment of six months in prison is provided for violations of the order made necessary by the scarcity of flour. Following a legal opinion by the at torney general of the United States, General Goethals, governor of the Panama canal zone, has ordered a reduction of 20 per cent in canal tolls. Under the new ruling the maximum rate will be $1.25 per ton of net registered tonnage. Frederick S. Boyd, former Industrial Worker of the World, convicted of Mrs. Lizzie Reveile died at her home sabotage and incendiary utterances in the mill village Wednesday, March sabotage and incendiary utterances and refused a new trial, has petitioned the New Jersey board of pardons for Baptist church. The interment was clemency, declaring that he has renounced his former I. W. W. views.

Dispatches received in New York by the Presbyterian foreign mission board brings the information that all the men of the village of Gulpashan, Jacob B. Miller, a burglar, arrested a gun of battery Gregg, causing a tion in Philadelphia, Thursday night, suspension of operations during the by two detectives, suddenly drew an automatic pistol, shot one three times Evan's brigade is at Mount Pleasant through the heart, killing him instant-

News Happenings In Neighboring Communities.

CONDENSED FOR QUICK READING Dealing Mainly With Local Affairs of

been living at Due West for some time, will probably make his home in Rock Hill. He represents the milling a fine of $20 or to serve thirty days concern of D. A. Stickel & Son of Hagerstown, Md. He is here now, accompanied by his wife...... Mrs. W. plead guilty and was sentenced to pay a fine of $20 or to serve thirty days on the county chaingang. He accepted the days. The thoft of the chickens occurred several days ago, and finding that he had been detected Jeffeld and the server has a sentenced to pay a fine of $20 or to serve thirty days on the county chaingang. He accepted the days. The thoft of the chickens occurred several days ago, and finding that he had been detected Jeffeld and the server has a sentenced to pay a fine of $20 or to serve thirty days on the county chain and was sentenced to pay a fine of $20 or to serve thirty days and was sentenced to pay a fine of $20 or to serve thirty days on the county chain and the server has a fine of $20 or to serve thirty days on the county chain and the server has a fine of $20 or to serve thirty days and was sentenced to pay a fine of $20 or to serve thirty days on the county chain and the server has a fine of $20 or to serve thirty days on the county chain and the server has a fine of $20 or to serve thirty days and was sentenced to pay a fine of $20 or to serve thirty days and was sentenced to pay a fine of $20 or to serve thirty days and the server has a fine of $20 or to serve thirty days and was sentenced to pay a fine of $20 or to serve thirty days and was sentenced to pay a fine of $20 or to serve thirty days and was sentenced to pay a fine of $20 or to serve thirty days and was sentenced to pay a fine of $20 or to serve thirty days and was sentenced to pay a fine of $20 or to serve thirty days and was sentenced to pay a fine of $20 or to serve thirty days and was sentenced to pay a fine of $20 or to serve thirty days and was sentenced to pay a fine of $20 or to serve thirty days and was sentenced to pay a fine of $20 or to serve thirty days and was sentenced to pay a fine of $20 or to serve thirty days and was sentenced T. Carter died Tuesday night of pneumonia at her home on Wilson street. She was 35 years old and leaves a funeral was held from the home on Wednesday afternoon by Rev. F. T. Cox and the remains were taken to Fort Mill for interment.....The pupils of the high school were given a holiday vesterday afternoon, lasting ant was rendered by Magistrata T. C. holiday yesterday afternoon, lasting through Monday, on account of the teachers going to Florence to attend the annual meeting of the State Teachers' association, now in session there.....Jas. S. White has given a contract to the Catawba Manufacturing company to build an extension 30 feet long to the store room next to the Peoples Bank building, occupied by the Rock Hill Supply company. As soon as it is completed, the Supply

Chester Reporter, March 25: Mrs. Desha Breckenridge of Lexington, Ky., the noted woman suffrage advo-cate, addressed a crowd of about 200 at the opera house last night, the meeting being held under the auspices of the local Equal Suffrage league said, smiling. "Just auf Wiedershen."
She nodded and smiled too, but as the smiled she shivered, and turned the car slowly. There was no need to the car slowly. There was no need to the car slowly. There was no need to the car slowly the fastest west-nurry now.

The butch steamer Medea, loaded the forces must remain subservient to local civil authorities the fastest west-nurry now.

The butch steamer Medea, loaded the forces must remain subservient to local civil authorities days when the pioneers' worldly condition was gauged by the hams hang-ling in the smoakhouse and the pep-nurry now.

The butch steamer Medea, loaded the forces must remain subservient to local civil authorities days when the pioneers' worldly condition was gauged by the hams hang-ling in the smoakhouse and the pep-nurry now.

The butch steamer Medea, loaded the forces must remain subservient to local civil authorities days when the pioneers' worldly condition was gauged by the hams hang-ling in the smoakhouse and the pep-nurry now.

As Samson crossed the toll bridge neighborhood Monday afternoon, att-er an illness of three weeks from pneumonia, and was buried in Union graveyard at Richburg Tuesday after funeral services by Rev. J. V. Davis. Mr. McFadden was a native of this county and was in his fiftieth year. He was an active and devoted member of the Methodist church, and Chester county contained no better citizen.
Mr. McFadden is survived by his widow, who was Miss Sallie McWaters, widow, who was Miss Sallie McWaters, and several children....The jury in the case of William, alias "Man" Young, charged with murder, Mr. R. G. Mills, foreman, brought in a verdict of "Not guilty," this morning. Young shot and killed Tillman Cunters at Fort Lawn during the lingham at Fort Lawn during the holidays, by firing a pistol promiscu-ously in celebration of Christmas. There was no evidence of intention to the homicide was accidental and the slayer not at fault......Mr. Geo. W. Reighley, a highly esteemed citizen of the Halsellville neighborhood, died years of age and leaves a widow and one step-daughter, Miss Fanny Lipford; also several brothers and sisters, two of whom, Mr. T. B. Reighley and city. The deceased was a member of the Baptist church and was highly thought of in his community ... leave tomorrow evening for Baltinore, where Mrs. Levy will remain for several months with relatives. Mr. Levy, after spending about ten days in Baltimore, will go to Philadelphia and take a course in optometry at one of the leading optical colleges.

and Mrs. Levy expect to return to Chester in August or September. Lancaster News, March 26: Alethia T. Clyburn, widow of the late Capt. William Clyburn, died at her home in Atlanta Saturday. Her remains were brought to Kershaw Monday and interred beside those of her to learn of his death, which occurred in Charlotte early Wednesday morning, after a brief illness with heart trouble. He was stricken Tuesday afternoon in his office in the Realty Methodist Episcopal church, has and nurses did everything possible to tion and left on No. 9, on the restore him, but in vain. had for the past four years been praccialist in diseases of the eye, ear and of recognized ability. After com-pleting a full course of medicine in this country he studied for sometime in Vienna. Dr. Cauthen is survived by his widow, who was Miss Cynthia sions, a former teacher in Elizabeth college; by two sisters, Mrs. D. M. Kirkley of Kershaw, and Mrs. Daisy Hasseltine of Rock Hill, and by two brothers, Mr. Claude Cauthen of Rock Hill, and Mr. W. V. Cauthen of Orlando, Fla.....Mrs. Mary Manes, Mrs. E. H. Steele, at the advanced age county. She was a daughter of James and Eliza Nevens, of Tennessee, and was born in 1829. For forty years gain entrance by the back door. This Mrs. Manes was a member of the falling the man went on top of the Methodist church at this place. pastor, Rev. E. T. Hodges, assisted by Rev. W. S. Patterson and Dr. J. H. Thayer, conducted the funeral serinterred in the Presbyterian cemetery. Lancaster chamber of commerce, attended the meeting of the Catawba circuit of the South Carolina Federation of Fairs held at Rock Hill Tues-day. Mr. Ellison is secretary and treasurer of the state organization. lege, where the body was entertained at dinner. President Johnson aftervards made a short talk, congratulate organization upon learned the secret of co-operation ... She was 50 years and 7 months made in Westside cemetery yesterday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock after funeral services conducted by the Rev. S. R. Brock and the Rev. W. C. Burgess. velle, Tillman Revelle and John Re-velle of Lancaster, and Mrs. Addle Robertson of Lancaster.

Unless we get something by Tuesday evening's mail there will be nothing missionary beaten, and 65 refugees March 26: Judge Monday, granted a temporary injunction against the election for township which had been ordered for Tuesday. This made null and void the act of the general assembly, by virtue of the authority of which the state commis-sioners of election acted when notice of election was given. Notice of Judge Smith's action was given the commissioners of election late Monday night, and they sent word to the various of international interests.-Philadelmanagers who had been appointed to phia Public Ledger. ly, and mortally wounded the other conduct the election .... Before Sepofficer. He made his escape but was tember 1st, of this year, three hand-The Wayside Home in Charleston, arrested next day and confessed the some new brick business buildings will have been constructed on the old pessimist thought would never hap-hotel property on North Limestone pen.—Toledo Blade.

two stories. The lots, which were re-cently sold at auction, are owned by Dr. V. H. Lipscomb, Dr. J. N. Nesbit and Mr. T. H. Westrope, respectively. As yet no contract has been let, but plans are being considered, and one of the men interested states that work vill begin within the next six weeks or two months......Mr. George H. Edwards of Yorkville, was among the visitors in the city Wednesday..... Mr. O. E. Wilkins of Yorkville, spent few hours in the city Wednes

Cherokee, Cleveland, Gaston, Lancaster and Chester.

Rock Hill Record, March 25: J. L. Milbur Jefferies, a negro, was tried in the office of Magistrate William Phillips at the courthouse Tuesday, by Magistrate J. M. Gardener, of the But-Staley of Lynchburg, Va., who has lers section of the county, on a charge of stealing chickens from Mr. J. V. Price, near Macedonia. The negro plead guilty and was sentenced to pay feries went to Union, where he was arrested and held for Cherokee county officers. Deputy Sheriff J. E. Wat-kins brought him back from Union. husband and several children. The It is said that considerable chicken tions.....A verdict for the defend-ant was rendered by Magistrate T. C. Bridges Tuesday, in the case of R. L. Elmore versus the town of Gaffney.

The prosecution was represented by Captain J. B. Bell and Hon. W. S. Hall, while City Attorney G. W. Speer represented the city. Elmore was asking for the return of $100 bond which had been forfeited to the town. A summary of the facts in the case follows: Elmore was convicted on a certain charge and appealed to the circuit court; he put up a bond of $100. Later Elmore signed a $200 ompany will move their stock all into this one store room and the other bond for a negro named Douglas Os-borne. It is alleged that before the tore room will be given up by them. trial Elmore took Osborne into North Carolina and told him to stay there. Before Elmore's appeal to the circuit court could be heard, he was pardon-ed by the governor of the state. The city authorities retained his $100 for the bond he had signed for the negro. Elmore brought suit to recover his own bond, but the city took no steps to collect the bond he signed for Osborne. Magistrate Bridges defor Osborne. Magistrate Bridges de cided against the plaintiff.

Gastonia Gazette, March 26: Mrs f. I. Babington, mother of Mr. R. B her daughter, Mrs. Herbert B. Hunter in Charlotte......Mr. R. A. Denny, a brother of Mrs. J. Q. Hall and Mrs. Annie Hall, of Belmont, died yesterday at his home in Wannette, Okla Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Hall and Mrs. An nie Hall left yesterday for Plymouth, Ill., by way of Chicago, to attend the funeral and burial of their brother.... A telegram received by Mr. A. F. Whitesides conveyed the sad intelligence of the death in Athens, Texas, yesterday morning of little Ada Ag-nes, the six-year-old daughter of Mr. the Citizen's Trust Co., of Augusta, and Mrs. W. E. Whitesides. She had Ga., which failed in 1912, was arrest-and Mrs. W. E. Whitesides. She had been ill for eight weeks with catarrhal fever, which later developed into pleurisy.....The following from the Charlottesville, Va., Progress of Monday afternoon, March 22, will be of interest to many of our readers, not only because of the unusual circumstences therein related but because by the Rev. Dr. Staples at the home of the bride in Orange, last Thursday morning. March 18th, and came to Charlottesville on the train which ar ed to continue their wedding trip to changed his mind between Thursday noon and the evening of the next day as he disappeared Friday night and, it is thought, deserted his bride of a As soon as the anxious wife realize ner position she notified her family in Orange and sent an inquiry to her usband's mother, asking if she knew of the whereabouts of the recalcitrant groom. Dr. Geo. H. Sparks of Mitch-ell, Va., came at once to Charlottes Dr. Geo. H. Sparks of Mitchville, but he could do nothing and re-turned to his practice after consoling his sister as best he could. Mrs. husband....The Lancaster friends of Stockton, Senior, the groom's mother Dr. Robert S. Cauthen were shocked in response to her newly acquired husband's whereabouts, telegraphed Mrs. Frank Stockton to come to her mother, would find the missing husband. Mrs. Frank Stockton decided home on Park Drive and physicians to accept her mother-in-law's invita-Dr. Cau-ern railway on Saturday. No news has shaw. He been prac-been prac-Frank Stockton gave his age when ap-Orange as 21, but it is said that he

Frank Stockton was one of her pupils. King's Mountain Herald, March 25: Rev. C. L. Bragaw is having a serious time with pneumonia. His condition doesn't seem to improve. His father is here from Washington, D. C...... vidow of the late James Manes, died J. M. Patterson has been elected sec gressive association. This action was week..... An attempt was made Sunbuilding and was working at the sky light when discovered by Dr. Hood There is no clue.... Miss Sallie Coop er, aged 65, a maiden lady who mad Tuesday. The remains were buried on Wednesday afternoon at the Harriburying ground near Long Shoals.... On March 7th Mrs. J. H. Green pass ed into the great beyond. This good woman was a native of Cleveland ty. She was a devout Christian, and The dates for the several county fairs a member of Trinity Baptist church were arranged, the Lancaster county where her body was laid to rest.... fair to be held the week following the Mrs. George Brooks and children lef state fair, or about the first part of for their home at Marion, Ga., at the November. After gathering at the first of the week after spending two Rock Hill chamber of commerce, the weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. meeting adjourned to Winthrop col- J. E. McLaughen, here.

The Road to Mexico .- President Wil son has made a genuine move of effective diplomacy in demanding that the railroad between Mexico City and Vera Cruz shall be kept open. One ounce of specific and concrete statesmenship is worth a ton of general and idealistic representations. Carranza knows now that there is at least one thing he must do; if he cannot do Mrs. Revelle is survived by the following children: T. L. Revelle of King's Mountain, N. C.; Virgil Re- any further recognition from the United States.

There are three reasons why the railroad should be kept open: Amerineed; a food route must be maintained for those who still remain there and ready if it should be necessary for the guilty. Desclaux was sentenced to United States to occupy Mexico City

HAPPENINGS IN THE STATE tems of Interest From All Sections of South Carolina There are several cases of smallnov

TERMS----$2.00 A YEAR IN ADVANCE.

n Charleston. Fire in Greenville Friday, destroyed two homes at the Brandon mill and two at the Carolina mills.

The contract for the erection of a new school building in Spartanburg, was let last week. The building will cost $30,183,86. W. W. Johnson, judge of probate of Union county, has announced his candidacy for congress from the 4th congressional district. Miss Pauline Brown of Easley, won first prize in the annual declamation contest among Pickens county schools. which was held Friday. Fire destroyed a dozen small residences in Prosperity, Newberry county. Friday afternoon. The buildings were valued at about $25,000. Sixty-one deaths occurred at the state hospital for the insane during January and February. Forty-one deaths were attributed to pellagra. In the first regular game played by the two teams this season, Clemson college defeated Furman University at baseball in Anderson, Friday, 3 to 2. Prof. W. B. Benson has decliend reelection as superintendent of the Easley schools, to accept a position on the faculty of the Bailey Military institute, Greenwood. John B. Sample, one of the oldest citizens of Greenwood county, died last week, aged 84 years. He was a veteran of the war between the sections. The Greenville fire department has already broken all records for fire calls in that city for March. Twentytwo fire calls were answered from March 1 to March 26. Governor Manning has sent a copy of the gallon a month law to each Babington, general manager of the sheriff in the state, with a request Pledmont Telephone and Telegraph that the sheriffs see to it that all company, is quite ill at the home of magistrates are made familiar with the provisions of the law.

> Greenwood Rogers, colored, convicted of arson in connection with the murder of George W Younge in Laurens county, several months ago, has been taken to the state penitertiary where he will be electrocuted on April

M. C. Dowling, vice president of the Halsellville neighborhood, died suddenly of apoplexy Tuesday afternoon about 1.30 o'clock and was buried yesterday at Calvary Baptist church, funeral services by Rev. E. D. Wells. Mr. Reighley was about 56 Stockton of Gastonia, N. C., and Miss Stockton of Gastonia, N. C., and Miss Metts's appointment as postmaster at Solike Sparks of Orange, were married. Greenville, has been set for trial or April 22.

Capt. J. L. Wardlaw of Columbia has been elected superintendent of the Confederate home, Columbia, to sucwas elected matron of the home and mother of the happy bridegroom. E. J. Derrick, M. D., was elected phy-However, Frank Stockton must have sician, succeeding Dr. F. W. P. But-

W. F. Kay was held up by highwaymen near Anderson last week. A terrific fight ensued in which his clothes were cut in numerous places. Realizing that their would-be victim was an unusually hard proposition, the would-be robbers abandoned their attempt. There has been no arrests.

The town of Bennettsville has been considerably stirred up during the past few days over the appearance of a suposed "wild man" who has shown himself at the homes of several citizens, greatly frightening the inmates. So far the strange fellow has not been identified.

M. W. Swann of Bennettsville, has collected 41,000 beer bottles during the past few weeks. He proposes to sell them to liquor dealers. All save twenty-five barrels of the bottles which still attending school and that he is were secured at McColl, were gathered only 18 years old. Mrs. Stockton is in Bennettsville. During the past few 28. These newlyweds first met last year when Miss Sallie Sparks, as she was then, went to Gastonia to teach school. It is not known whether ville. During the past few days Mr. Swann has also gathered about 4,000 liquor bottles in Bennetts-ville. days Mr. Swann has also gathered

Rev. J. Ross Stevenson, D. D. president of Princeton Theological seminary, is to preach the baccalaureate sermon at the Presbyterian college of South Carolina, at Clinton, on May 28. Rev. S. J. Cartledge of Atlanta, Ga., is to deliver the annual sermon to the Y. M. C. A., and W. W. Lewis, Esq., of Yorkville, is to deliver day night to burglarize the Mauney the commencement address on Weddrug store. An effort was made to nesday, June 2.

Governor Manning has appointed Robert M. Burts sheriff of Abbeville county, to succeed C. J. Lyon, resigned. The appointee has never held political office before and the appointment came as a great surprise, since Burts had not been mentioned in connection with the office. Sheriff Burts is a brother of Rev. C. E. Burts of Columbia.

ommittee in charge of the arrangeunion, which meets in Columbia, April 22 and 23, in which there ns inserted a resolution, adopted by the committee, requesting the chief executive to close the dispensaries in Columbia the two days of the reunion.

Claude N. Sapp of Lancaster, has been appointed a trustee of the Cedar Springs institute for the deaf and dumb and blind. Mr. Sapp who was formerly a member of the house of representatives from Lancaster county, was regarded as one of the leaders during the administration of former Governor Blease. Governor Manning is quoted as saving that the appointment of Mr. Sapp is in line with his policy of not regarding factions in selecting men for office, but to appoint solely on efficiency and merit.

Colonel Francois Desclaux and Mme stealing army supplies, were declared

A Chicago grain dealer reports that he has on the way to England a cargo of 350,000 bushels of wheat, but up to 23'A phenomenon is something a this time he has had no bids for the grain.